

SAAG

Southern Arizona Arts Guild

2009 Teacher Reference Guide

Name	Contact Information	Specialty	Bio
Ahearn, Linda	Toscana Studio and Gallery Linda@toscanastudioandgallery.com www.toscanastudioandgallery.com 9040 N. Oracle Road Oro Valley, Arizona 520.575.1445	Artist gallery and working art studio offering a variety of classes in Painting and Sculpture. Guest artists offer classes. Check the website for current offerings.	Linda holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree and specializes in sculpture and molding techniques. Her education focused in oil until her junior year when she studied different sculpture methods at Gonzaga in Florence, Italy.
Greene, Harry	HarryGreeneFineArts@yahoo.com 520.575.1445 or 520.906.9224 1489 W. Bridalveil Pl., Oro Valley, Arizona 85737 May thru Sept: 1189 Nantasket Ave., Condo K-1, Hull MA 02045	Teaches privately at his studio in Oro Valley, at the Toscana Art School, and at Desert Museum Art Institute in Tucson. Courses include: "Anatomy for Artists" and "Painting the Peoples of the Sonoran Desert"	After a successful career as a physician, CEO, and author he turned to his original love. Harry now follows his love for portraiture and contemporary realistic painting. He has studied with well known oil, watercolor, pastel and print making artists. He is a certified instructor for The Portrait Institute of America.
Hungate, JoAnne	johungate@comcast.net www.artbyjoanne.com	Small classes (4-6 people) in watercolor monotype, (2 presses available at her home studio). Specialty areas: Watercolor monotype, collage, watercolor, acrylic on paper and canvas. Classes can be arranged	JoAnne is a working artist specializing in water based paints. 30 years experience with watercolor monotypes. Studied at DeCordova Museum, Lincoln, MA. Her work has appeared in numerous shows, won awards and is displayed in various parts of the world.
Jalbert-Delenzo, Jeanise	520-546-0868 hagg58@msn.com	Mosaics, Painting, Drawing, Mixed media. Contact her to make arrangement.	Jeanise holds an MFA. She taught at the U of New Mexico and also through the Massachusetts Foundation for the Arts. She has won Best of Show at numerous exhibits in the New England area

Name	Contact	Specialties	Bio
Larwood, Laurie Shamroth, Sherry	www.quaillane.com larwood@quaillane.com Shamroth@earthlink.com 520.579.9773	Digital art, photography, giclee printing business. Learning opportunities: computer editing and enhancement of photographic images. Cost varies with level and intensity Free advice on “how to do shows and street fairs”.	Quail Lane Studios, run by Laurie and Sherry has been in business over 5 years. Sherry holds a MA in Communications, coming from a university background she also previously ran Rothwood Gallery in Reno, NV. Laurie holds a PhD. In Psychology and has a background as Dean at University of Nevada.
Lyon, Mary Jane	mjlaz@juno.com www.maryjanelyon.com 520.295.0173	Instruction in Watercolor, Pastel, Matting and Framing, watercolor pouring, Acrylic Ink pouring, jewelry making using Dichoric glass fusing.	40 years teaching experience. Beginning and intermediate watercolor instruction in her home studio and for Pima College. Private class and small group instruction available.
Lytwynczuk, Christine	paintingsbycl@live.com Studio: 857 E. Sequoyah St. (near Grant and 1 st)	Instruction beginning through advanced techniques, developing a style, becoming looser, painting “glowing color”. Studio and Saddlebrook classes.	BFA Maryland Institute of Art. One year Masters of Art instructing. Studied in France with Parsons/Otis, and on-going learning with modern masters. To be an artist and to be alive, the mind and skills must be continuously growing. 18+ years teaching drawing and painting to all levels.
Macaulay, Kath	Kathmacaulay10@hotmail.com	Workshops available on the “Business of Doing Art” and “Pocket Sketching”.
McEwen, Judie	Judie_McEwen@msn.com 520.742.4251	Call or email for information on future offerings.
Parsell, Lorrie	lptoo@cox.net	Beginning watercolor landscape painting. Pouring techniques utilizing acrylic inks. Beginner hand built clay class (adult and children) Email Lorrie for information on upcoming classes.	Lorrie is an experienced art teacher with Amphi Schools and extension programs. She holds an art design degree from San Diego State University. Her paintings have been displayed in many Tucson galleries and shows. Classes are taught at her studio in the Central Tucson Mountains.

Name	Contact	Specialties	Bio
Plevel, Marty	Change By Design changebydesign@mindspring.com 520.797.2343	Unique rug painting classes scheduled fall and spring. Participants come away with a original art rug usable in the home or business. Feng Shui consultations also available to improve chi and harmony in your life.	Marty has 8 years experience teaching rug painting. Certified Feng Shui consultant since 2002, Chi Rising School of Feng Shui. Many years experience teaching in public and private schools.
Raduenzel, Sally	Creative Potential sally@creativepotential.com www.creativepotential.com www.HappyNotesCards.com 520.742.7575	Personal and Business Coaching, one to one. Having a partner helps focus and enables people to move forward more quickly with support. Also offer a “Creativity PlayShop” (getting out of your own way) by request for small groups or check for next scheduled playshop	Sally offers business development coaching. She partners with people in transition to vision, create and then live their dream. Creativity PlayShop uses group coaching and playful watercolor techniques to discuss limiting beliefs, and experience life changing creative break through! She is a Professional Certified Coach (PCC), with a Masters M.Ed. in Education.
Thibault, Deanna	www.Thibault4Art.com Thibault4Art@earthlink.com 520-907-6108	Classes available at her studio. Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced Watercolor, Collage, and Mixed Media. Call or email to learn current class offerings and schedule.	Deanna holds a B.A. degree with secondary and adult teaching credentials. Specializing in watercolor, mixed media, and collage. Students are encouraged to find their own style. She has numerous awards and honors, with work accepted in national and international shows, including Western Federation of Watercolor Societies and Arizona Aqueous shows. Her work has been shown in the Cook Islands, California, Colorado, Texas, Nevada, Utah along with Arizona.